ARM TORN OFF IN SHREDDER

Harry Richey of Milroy Added to Long List of Corn
Shredder Victims

Arm Caught in the Knives and Was Torn Loose at the Elbow

While feeding corn in a shredder this morning, Harry Richey, working on the Perry T. Innis farm near Milroy, met with a distressing accident that will result in the loss of his arm. His hand was caught in the feeder and in an instant his arm was pulled off at the elbow, tearing it in a most horrible manner. The mangled limb hung bleeding at his side with the arteries quivering with every heart beat, and only the timely arrival of Drs. Hoagland and Lampton saved the young man from bleeding to death. The doctors quickly put him under the influence of an anesthetic, hurriedly tied up the arteries, and dressed the mangled and mutilated limb as best they could. They decided to await the results of any possible reaction from the anesthetic, and with conditions favorable, the doctors will amputate Richey's arm above the elbow this afternoon.

The accident was the chief topic of conversation at Milroy today, and expression of sympathy was heard on every side, as the young man was very popular and will be obliged to carry an empty coat sleeve the rest of his life, the result of the painful and unfortunate accident this morning.

Harry Richey is a son of John Richey, of Milroy.

SHREDDER ACCIDENT AT ST. PAUL.

Oscar Towler, a young farmer, living near St. Paul met with the same fate as Richey, in a corn shredder mishap, but he will not lose his arm, as he only had his hand cut off at the wrist. Mr. Towler is a complete nervous wreck, and his recovery is doubtful.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR I. & C. LINE

Goes into Effect Tomorrow—Im-material Changes in Departure of Cars

A new schedule will go into effect on the I. & C. tomorrow (Sunday). The west-bound cars will leave here two minutes after the hour, instead of leaving on the hour. The first west-bound car will leave this city at 5:02 a. m. and every hour thereafter to 11:02 p. m. West-bound limited trains will leave a 8:11 a. m. and 5:11 p. m. East-bound, the cars will leave this city for Connersville and all intermediate points every two hours, from 6:54 a. m. to 10:58 p. m., except 6:58 p. m. and a limited train will leave this city at 6:43 p. m. The last east-bound car will be at 1:00 a. m.

The express cars leave this city at 6:54 a. m. and 2:35 p. m. The week end rates from this city to Indianapolis will be extended to the Connersville division. Interchangeable coupons books will be issued by special contract for family or party use.

There will not be any change in the schedule in effect in Indianapolis, for cars leaving that city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Martin, of St. Paul, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lowe, over Sunday.

—W. A. Stockinger and wife are entertaining his mother, Mrs. Lewis Stockinger, of Batesville, and sisters, Miss Bertha Stockinger, of Bloomington, and Miss Martha Stockinger, of Greenfield, together with his uncle P. P. Custer of Seattle Wash.

CONFIDENCE IN A REPUBLICAN CONGRESS

Pennsylvania Railroad Company
Notifies Employees of an Increase in Salary

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has sent an official letter to [their agents notifying them of an increase of salary of ten per cent to all employees, east and west of Pittsburgh. This effects over 132,000 men and makes an increase of $1,000,000 per month to the present pay roll which is already over $10,000,000. The increase in wages goes into effect December 1st. All of the local employees are wearing a "smile that won't brush off."

CONTRACT FOR NEW BUILDING

Chas. F. Francis & Bro. Will Award Contract For Factory
Building Next Week

Chas. E. Francis, of the firm of Chas. E. Francis & Bro. of Cincinnati, the manufacturers who are preparing to locate in this city, was here yesterday. The grading for the switch on the factory site has been completed by Arvel Herkless, and the railroad company has the rails and ties on hand ready to begin work about Monday.

Mr. Francis will return next week, when a contract will be awarded for the erection of their building. The main building is to be of brick, and will be two stories in height.

"GAZABO" MOVES ON THIS CITY

Millionaire's Rolling Palace
Passes Through Here Enroute to Jackson County

Peter E. Schwab, the millionaire brewer of Hamilton, who with his father, owns controlling interest in the Cincinnati Brewing company, was here last night and today, with a party of friends enroute to Jackson county on a camping expedition. They are traveling overland, not as gypsies, but as princes. Mr. Schwab had a large wagon built especially for such jaunts, and it is surely a rolling palace, and attracted a great deal of attention on our streets. From an exterior view, it has the appearance of a large costly circus wagon; painted in bright colors with relief carved work finished in gold. And the interior is fitted as lavishly, comfortable and "swell-elegant" as the Kaisers private yacht. The wagon is named "Gazabo"—why, they did not say.

It is twenty-two feet in length, has sleeping compartments as fine—or really finer—than any palace car; fitted throughout with waterworks; a kitchen range built especially for the wagon; large refrigerators; mirror panels, and would have been fitted up with an electric light plant, but the apparatus was late in arriving, and the "Gazabo" waits for no man or the workings of any man.

The Cincinnati Enquirer had a write-up of the outfit, together with a picture, last Sunday, and called "Peter E." the prince of good fellows. With Mr. Schwab on the camping trip are Albert Huber, of Washington, D. C.; Max Hemann, of Hamilton; James Haggan, secretary to the mayor of Hamilton, and Leonard Morner, of Hamilton. The "Gazabo" carries a driver and a German chef.

—Charles Wolfe, who has been the guest of his father, Col. E. H. Wolfe and his sister, Mrs. Fanny Maupin, will return to his home in Washington, D. C., after a pleasant visit of one week in this city.

I. & C. WILL BE PUSHED EAST

Will be Extended to Cincinnati as Soon as the Weather Permits

Road too Expensively Constructed to Depend Entirely on the Present Line

In an interview with a Connersville Examiner reporter, one of the high officials of the I. & C. traction line said:

"You may rest assured that the line will be pushed on to Cincinnati just as fast as possible. And this does not mean that it will be any length of time before the work eastward will be resumed. This line is expensively constructed. It has cost more per mile to build it than any other interurban in Indiana. It has been built with an idea of high speed, and therefore more expensively than if it had simply been the idea to give an ordinary interurban service between Connersville and Indianapolis. There is so much money invested in its construction that it is extremely doubtful if it would ever pay the stockholders a cent if it should never enter a bigger field and secure the well paying through business which will come to it after the line is completed between Indianapolis and Cincinnati, double tracked, as it will be, and a three-hour schedule put on between these points. When these things are done this line will be one of the very best paying interurbans in the world, and it will get a great bulk of the through passenger business between Indianapolis and Cincinnati, which is now divided between three steam roads. There will be no limit, scarcely, to the business offered. That is the reason we are building our grade and bridges wide enough for double track. It will be a long time, perhaps, before all of this is done, but you will see the work on the extension from Connersville pushed rapidly forward next spring."

BY THE WAYSIDE

A certain little woman living on North Sexton street, who is always advocating economy in household affairs made the following remark recently to a party of friends, "Wouldn't it be nice to keep a cow, so we could have our own milk, butter, and eggs?"—Then she wondered why her friends laughed at her last suggestion.

Thursday evening Bob Tompkins left this city for Indianapolis on an I. & C. car, and having a lighted torch in his face in the way of a "Yellow Dog seegar," he took "apartments" in the smoker. An old soldier got on later, bound for Morristown. Evidently he had been rati-fying over the election, and was in a talkative mood when the conductor quickly ushered him to the smoker in a seat opposite Tompkins. He remained quiet for a few minutes and seeing Tompkins he fairly jumped out of his seat, and fell all over him in an endeavor to grasp him by the hand. Bob did not know what to think of the man's actions, it all came about of a sudden, until he put his arm about his neck, and then Bob thought the fellow was on for a fight. The old man began to mumble something, but he was "too full for utterances."

Too full of enthusiasm, for he thought Bob was Congressman Watson. Many were the compliments and congratulations that fell from the lips of the old man, until finally he demanded that Bob go into "executive session" with him. He had a grievance. He was only getting $18 a month from the pension department, and he insisted on an increase. And Bob readily granted it to him. Before the old man got off at Morristown he had a promise that his pension would be increased to $24 per month.

The rest of the trip to Indianapolis, Bob put in straightening himself out, and nursing the bruises caused by the kindly "bear hugs" the old soldier gave him for an increase in his pension.

"COPPERBOTTOM" TAKES UP ORIENTAL CUSTOM

T. W. Worthington "cagged" five cents yesterday, and hurried to a saloon to lift one. They refused to sell him anything, and after visiting several places, meeting the same fate in each place, disgustedly he darted into a drug store.

"Gimme a nickel's worth of perfume," he said, and after receiving a small bottle of Jockey club, he poured the contents down his back, and striking a defiant attitude said in his characteristic dramatic style: "I guess this will hold them awhile."

Nobody knew just exactly what he meant, but rest assured it is some token of revenge. Possibly a form of soothing an angry passion indulged in by the superstitious people of the far East. It is symbolical of something, or Tom would not have done it. Anyway, the perfume did not do him any harm.

BIGGEST PATRON OF POSTOFFICE

The Republican Office Leads all Manufacturing Concerns in this City

The Republican office is steadily growing to quite a business and manufacturing institution, and it does a more extensive business than is generally supposed by the people of Rushville that look upon a printing office as a concern that simply prints—for fun—or for the gratification of a few people, who think a printing office has nothing else to do.

In one respect the Republican office leads all the manufacturing and business concerns in this city without any exception, and that is, it is the biggest patron of the postoffice. The annual postage account of the office runs up to about $800.00—about $800.00—about $65.00 per month.

According to an act of congress, the postoffice grants permits to transmit through the mails pieces of mail of not less than 2000 of third and fourth class matter with out postage stamps affixed, but the lump sum of the equivalent must be paid in cash to the postoffice.

Three years ago the Republican office applied to the local postoffice for a permit, and the permit granted was No. 1. Under this permit No. 1 the Republican office has sent out about 16,000 pieces of mail each year for three years, and the permit holds good for that branch of the business as long as the law will be in force.

This week the Republican office applied for another permit, for another branch of its business, and the permit granted was No. 2. This shows that since this law was enacted in 1904 no one but the Republican office has had enough mail to send out at any one time to secure the benefits of this provision, and the Republican office is the only institution that has been granted these permits—No. 1 and No. 2.

—Mrs. B. A. Sunderland and son Gowdy, of Greenfield, are here on a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Sunderland's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, on North Main street.

—Mrs. Claude Heaston and son William, went to Indianapolis today to visit for a few days. Mr. Heaston will join them tomorrow.

—Prof. T. A. Craig has returned from Richmond, where he conducted the singing at a revival in the Reid Memorial church.

—Mrs. Anna Hamilton, of Noble township, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Von Grommstein, in Indianapolis. Mrs. Hamilton has purchased property in Indianapolis, and will move to that city soon.

Her son, Tom George Hamilton and family, of Cincinnati, will remove to Indianapolis and will occupy part of the house.

—Misses Ruth Richards and Audra Hoover, of North Manchester, are the guests of Miss Georgia Morris, of North Jackson street.

PAYS PENALTY OF HIS SIN

Preacher Hinshaw Forfeits
His Right to Freedom

Parolee Murderer Formed Liason With Old Time Sweetheart and is Punished

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—William E. Hinshaw was started back to the penitentiary at Michigan City today to serve the rest of a life sentence for the murder of his wife. Governor Hanly yesterday afternoon revoked the parole upon which he was released by Governor Durbin about two years ago, and ordered Hinshaw remanded to the Marion county jail. He telegraphed for Warden Reid of Michigan City prison, to come to Indianapolis today and take the prisoner back.

The decision of the governor came with unexpected suddenness, owing to the complete confession of Hinshaw. In the hearing yesterday afternoon he made a clean breast of the whole matter with reference to Mrs. Freeman. He admitted that he had improper relations with her at Shirley, as Freeman had charged, and as Mrs. Freeman had confessed. The testimony of everyone else was most convincing in its circumstantiality, and Mrs. Freeman's confession, as recited by her husband, left no doubt in the minds of those who were present that the whole story was true, even before Hinshaw confessed.

John S. Duncan, who was Hinshaw's attorney, made small effort at defense in his argument. There wasn't much he could say. The whole case was admitted, so Duncan based his appeal on the proposition that the offense was not grave enough to send a man back to the penitentiary for life. This was the burden of it, and it was not long. Attorney General Miller made a short speech in answer to this.

Governor Hanly seemed to have made up his mind, after Hinshaw's confession. After the two short speeches by Miller and Duncan, he addressed the prisoner, declaring that he was not fit to be outside the prison bars. "Sorry as I feel for you, personally," the governor was heard to say, "I am convinced that the prison is the best place for you. I shall therefore revoke the parole granted to you, and you will tomorrow be taken back to Michigan City prison."

Hinshaw was arrested Thursday upon an executive order issued by Governor Hanly. Charges had been preferred with the governor by George Freeman, the sheriff-elect of Wabash county, that Hinshaw had been intimate with Freeman's wife, and the governor issued an order that resulted in his arrest. The hearing was private, but it is understood that Hinshaw, when put on the stand, admitted his liaison with Mrs. Freeman, who was an old-time sweetheart.

HELD A PRISONER BY RUSSIAN ARMY

The Morristown Sun says: F. W. Gottlieb, the tailor, is in receipt of five souvenir postals from his brother, Alfred at Hetchikan, Alaska. Three years ago he sent a set from Tokio, Japan, where he was held as a prisoner of war for smuggling beef to the Russian army. Alfred has been in nearly all countries of the world at 24 years old. But he has now settled in Alaska in search of gold.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Mahin and Mr. and Mrs. Menmair, of Connersville, will spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown, West First street.

—Misses Mary Lewis and Pearl Kitchen were Indianapolis visitors today and attended the Dockstader minstrels.

—Miss Elizabeth Michael, of Edgewater, Col., has returned to that place, after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Job H. Stevens and family, of West First street.

CHALICE MADE OF PARISHONER'S JEWELRY

Congregation Donate Hundreds of Dollars Worth of Jewelry for Jubilee Present

Several hundred dollar's worth of rings, bracelets, watches and jewelry, donated by parishoners and others for the golden jubilee chalice, to be presented St. Joseph's church at Elwood, will be melted into a lump of gold in that city and Father Biegel, who has been pastor of the church since it was established, will take it to Chicago, where it will be hammered into the chalice, the stones from rings and other jewelry used as ornaments.

The variety of gifts was large and many of them were more than one hundred years old, some coming from foreign countries. The chalice will have in its composition mementos from many Elwood homes that would be priceless.

SOCIETY NEWS

The Happy-go-Lucky club was entertained yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. George Looney, Jr., at their home on North Main street.

Miss Martha Emogene Hall, of Glenwood, who holds the position of primary teacher in the city schools of Anderson, recently announced her engagement to William Haeussler, of Dayton, at a reception held at the home of Prof. J. O. Black, at Anderson.

Mrs. J. B. Kinsinger will entertain the Monday Circle at her home on West Fifth street Monday. It will be an open meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Allen, of North Main street, will entertain with a family dinner tomorrow in honor of Mr. Allen's sixtieth birthday.

Connersville News: Nineteen of the ladies of the Cary club went to Rushville on the 12 o'clock traction car, yesterday, and spent the afternoon with Mrs. W. B. Wright, a member of the society. There was a splendid program, after which a sightseeing trip was made over Rushville. At 6 o'clock the ladies partook of a substantial lunch which they took along with them. They returned on the 8 o'clock car. Those in the party were Mesdames E. V. Hawkins, president, W. E. Ochiltree, William Newkirk, W. E. Newkirk, Edwin McIntosh, K. L. Hanson, E. Derbyshire, Charles Lewis, C. C. Hull, J. R. Mountain, C. E. McFarlan, P. H. Kensler, Scott Michener, Ed Michener, J. T. Lair, L. A. Frazee, W. F. L. Sanders, Mrs. Perry Michener and daughter, of Washington, D. C.

The Mull-Abercrombie Bid-Euchre club met last night at the Social club and organized for the coming season. Mr. Frank Mull and Guy Abercrombie were chosen as captains of opposing sides. Progressive bid-euchre will continue throughout the season, and the Mull contingent led off last evening with fifty-one points in the lead. Mrs. R. F. Scudder was the highest individual scorer for the ladies and Melvin Moore made the highest score of any of the gentlemen present. Interest in the scores is kept alive by means of a large chart score board where the tallies are recorded, and it is posted in a position where all can see it.

The refreshments last evening were served by Mrs. Frank Mull and Mrs. Guy Abercrombie. This part of the program—a most essential part—will fall on two different members of the organization at each session.

There will be a call meeting of the "Presbyterian Brotherhood" on Monday night, November 12th, 1906, for the purpose of perfecting and completing the final arrangements for the "Brotherhood Banquet" on Friday night, November 16th. All members are urged to be present at this meeting.

—Mrs. S. O. VanOsdol, of Lawrenceburg, is visiting her son, Dr. D. D. VanOsdol, on West Third street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harrison, of St. Paul, are the guests of Supt. and Mrs. W. O. Headlee, on West Tenth street.

DARK LEAF ON WOMAN'S LIFE

In Rush County History, Again Brought in Sunlight of Publicity

Mrs. A. G. Abernathy of Waldron
Has Had Eventful and Checked Career

It has developed that the Bertha Abernathy, who deserted her husband at Waldron this week and ran away with a man who deserted his wife and two children, has a dark chapter in the history of this county.

Mrs. Abernathy is barely out of her teens, but she has lived an eventful life, and for a young matron, has quite a checkered career.

She was reared near Carthage in this county, and on December 25th, 1904, was married to Jesse Fry, in Knightstown. They lived together in Ripley township until August, 21st, 1905, when Fry brought suit for divorce, in the Rush circuit court.

In his complaint he alleged that she frequently swore at him, and grumbled at everything he would do. She refused to do the house work for several days at a time, and innumerable times refused to prepare his meals. He further alleged that she continually sought the company of strange men, when he was away from home, and he charged her with being guilty of adultery.

A divorce was granted Fry, and on June the 6th, 1906, the defendant married Alonzo G. Abernathy, securing the marriage license at the county clerk's office here. They removed to Waldron, and it was again written "They were married and lived happy ever afterwards," when lo! she bobs up serenely again, this time eloping with the village barber of Waldron, a man of family and a society leader in that community. Thus she violated all the ethics of good stories, insisting on a sequel to a sequel. And now we wait—not anxiously, but knowingly for another chapter in the life of Bertha Rhodes-Fry-Abernathy-Critzer.

THE HORSE BREATHE THROUGH HIS NECK

Morristown Sun: Dr. Clark, the veterinary surgeon is treating a horse belonging to Earnest Waggoner in a rather novel but successful manner. At present the animal is breathing through his neck by means of a tube inserted into the windpipe. An excessive swelling of the acute membrane of the larynx rendered respiration labored and almost impossible, but when the tube was brought into use the horse at once became easier, giving mute gratitude of the relief gained by the treatment. The tube will be removed when the swelling is reduced so that the animal can get his breath through the nostrils again.

—Mrs. John Moore, North Morgan street, was in Indianapolis, yesterday.

—Stewart Beale, Charles Edgerton, Supt. W. O. Headlee and Orrie Muster will leave for Madison tomorrow on a hunting trip. Madison is Mr. Muster's old home town.

—Charles C. Brown was in Indianapolis today.

If the coming Jamestown exposition succeeds in showing farmers how to manufacture denatured alcohol so it may be cheap, an acre of corn will be worth $75.00.

It is claimed that "Nick" Longworth killed "Freddie" Landis. Everything went on smoothly in Landis' district until the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Longworth. That was the straw that broke the camel's back.

Judge Sparks certainly did the right thing when he refused to grant a divorce to Mrs. Julia Reed, of Jackson township, Shelby county. Her complaint was that her husband was a drunkard. When the judge questioned her the fact was brought out that the husband was a drunkard before she married him, and she had full knowledge of it. It very seldom pays for a woman to marry a man with a view of reforming him. The odds against it are too great, and a woman ought never to take the chances.

The Hinshaw murder case at the time—ten years ago—was a celebrated one, and for this reason the latest escape of the paroled prisoner caused considerable interest shown in the case. The case illustrates what long chances a man will take—a single mistep, as in this instance, sends a man back to prison for life, and a happy home in Wabash is wrecked—for the time. Mrs. Freeman says that there are two sides to this case and that she has a story to tell, which she will make public in a few days. It is to be hoped that her story will give sufficient reasons for her actions as to merit the forgiveness of her husband. Usually a woman—weak woman—is condemned in such cases, while the man, who is in most cases really to blame goes forth unscathed. In this instance the man has been sent back to prison for life. Now give the woman a chance.

In Thursday's Richmond Sun-Telegram the Rev. Kuhn issued a statement declaring war upon the Republican party and practically announcing his intention of seeking the nomination as Democratic candidate for congress again two years hence. The Palladium of that city says that Mr. Kuhn is probably led to announce himself thus early owing to the relation he must undoubtedly feel on account of the close race he ran the successful candidate this year. Mr. Watson. He forgets, however, the help he received from Republicans who "scratched" their ticket while laboring under the misapprehension that Mr. Watson had not represented them, will be lost to him two years from now when they will fully realize the mistake they have made and the injustice they have done Mr. Watson. The Rev. Mr. Kuhn next time will also be opposed by the many Republicans who did not vote at all this time owing to over-confidence, and for this we may thank him for having made so close a race this time. The Democratic war which the Rev. Mr. Kuhn is proposing to wage will end with the same conclusion all Democratic wars do in this county and district and that is defeat, and the kind of defeat only Republicans can administer.

THE RACE IS ON

Ambitious Legislators Going After the Speakership.

Indianapolis, Ind., November 10.—Representative John Edwards of Mitchell, who was here last night, announced that he is a candidate for speaker of the house. He has been a member of the house two sessions and has made a good record. Edwards said that he is in the race to stay and that he is confident that the speaker will be chosen from the southern Indiana counties, which saved the legislature for the Republicans. He had a conference with Governor Hanly during the afternoon. It is believed in some quarters that he may become the governor's candidate. Representative Gus Condo of Marion, who was here today, also announced his candidacy for speaker.

Gov. Hanly will determine who shall be elected speaker of the house of representatives. Although there is no question that the Republicans lost many districts because of opposition to the governor's policy, the governor proposes to say what is what from now on. No man shall be elected speaker who does not have his "O. K." and all Republicans may as well get ready to like it or not. The governor claims the legislature as his end of the Republican victory, and it is already evident that he will attempt to have men of his choice placed in positions of control. There will undoubtedly be a lot of opposition to this sort of program, but the governor will probably have the backing of the state organization. There are a number of prospective candidates who are already getting in line for the speakership, but they may as well stop running and await a high sign from the governor, for whatever he says will have to go.

Attorney General Miller is expected to decide today when the terms of Auditor of State-elect Billheimer and Secretary of State Sims begin. Mr. Sims was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Daniel E. Storms. Storms' term of office would have ended on Jan. 17, 1907. Warren Bigler was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of David E. Sherrick, which would have ended on Jan. 26, 1907. Billheimer was elected auditor of state at the recent election. The point to be decided is whether, under appointment of the governor, Sims and Bigler shall serve until the terms for which their predecessors were elected shall expire, or whether they shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified. If it is held that the terms for which Sims and Billheimer were elected shall begin as soon as they can qualify they will begin their service as elective officers within about a week from the present time. Otherwise Sims' term will begin on Jan. 17 and Billheimer's term on Jan. 26. A difference of about two months' salary for Billheimer as deputy auditor and for Sims as secretary of state is involved.

Secretary of State Sims has received the official returns from over half the counties. He said today that the plurality for the Republican state ticket will not be less than 30,000. Returns received by Chairman Goodrich caused him to make a positive statement that the Republicans will have fifty-three members of the house, giving a majority of six over the Democrats.

An oversight in fixing the date for the hearing of the cases against the gamblers caught in the state's raid of the French Lick and West Baden Monte Carlos last summer, will result in another postponement, as they have been set down for Sunday, Nov. 11. The court will not be in session on that day, so the state will try to have the cases heard some time next week.

Further Trouble Expected.
San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 10.—Orders were received here yesterday to send four companies of the Twenty-sixth infantry to Fort Reno, and they left last night on a special train. No information can be obtained as to the status of affairs at Fort Reno, but there is a report that the negroes who were recently dishonorably discharged on the orders of the president are causing much trouble there and that they are to be disbanded just as soon as possible. The troops leaving here have ball cartridges.

Boss Fisherman of the World.
Ely Paso, Tex., Nov. 10.—What is perhaps the greatest monopoly of its kind in the world has just been acquired by John C. Miller, a mining engineer of El Paso, through a concession granted by the government of Mexico for the fishing rights from Guaymas on the north to Manzanillo on the south, and on the east coast from parallel 24 on the north to the Bay of Campeche on the south, including all the rivers, bays, inlets and also the lakes for twenty miles inland.

Will Count Ballots in Court.
New York, Nov. 10.—The Republican campaign managers have decided to make application in the supreme court of the several counties in this vicinity for orders compelling the production in court of all "void and protested" ballots. These will be counted in court.

Bryan Expresses Satisfaction.
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 10.—Commenting on the result of Tuesday's election, W. J. Bryan gets considerable satisfaction in viewing the outcome from a Democratic standpoint.

SHAME OF TEXAS

Bloodshed Follows System of Pandering to Grafting "Greasers."

JUDGE ASSASSINATED

Rangers Sent to Quell Turbulence Following Base Political Crime Were Ambushed by Mexicans.

It Has Been the Habit at Rio Grande City to Bring Mexicans Over the Border to Vote.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 10.—Four Texas rangers sent to Rio Grande City to quell turbulent political conditions there and investigate the assassination of District Judge Welch, which occurred the night before the election, were ambushed by a body of armed Mexicans between Fordyce and Rio Grande City. The rangers were asleep in camp when awakened by a volley of shots from the darkness. A pitched battle ensued and four of the attacking party were killed, one fatally wounded and two captured. The rangers escaped unharméd. Governor Lanham at once ordered a company of cavalry to Starr county.

The situation in Starr county was brought about by alleged election irregularities, due to political clubs supplying Mexican residents with poll-tax receipts and insisting that they be allowed to vote. Judge Welch, who was assassinated Monday night, had gone from his home in Corpus Christi to be present at Rio Grande City on election day in an effort to prevent disorders. He was assassinated while asleep at night. It is charged that armed representatives of political clubs controlling the Mexican vote patrolled the voting places on election day and refused to allow members of the opposing faction to vote. Several shooting affrays occurred, but no one was killed or wounded. It is charged by one faction that Judge Welch was murdered by a hired assassin and that the ambuscade of the rangers was instigated by the same faction which inspired the murder of Judge Welch. There are reports here of continued rioting at Rio Grande City, the extent of which is not known.

THEY NEEDED THE MONEY

That is the Explanation of the Mexican Revolt.

Washington, Nov. 10.—No official report of the clash between the Texas Rangers and Mexicans near Rio Grande City has yet reached Washington, and the officials scarcely expect that there will be a report unless the matter is made the subject of diplomatic representations by the Mexican government, and so far the Mexican embassy here has not been advised of any such purpose. Troops are near the scene of trouble, four companies of the Twenty-fifth infantry being at Fort McIntosh, a little more than fifty miles distant, and three troops of the First cavalry at Fort Clark.

In explanation of the statement that the Mexicans were incensed over being excluded from voting last Tuesday, it is said by army officers that it has in the past been a common practice to bring Mexicans over the line and vote them in Texas when factional issues were being strongly contested, and it is conjectured that the Mexicans resented being deprived of the money they earned in that way.

Both Factions Secretly Armed.
Rio Grande City, Tex., Nov. 10.—The rangers' order to both factions to disarm is not being obeyed. Most of the men on the streets are armed, their weapons being concealed.

STINGING REBUKE

Judge Tells Prejudiced Jury What He Thinks of It.

Dothan, Ala., Nov. 10.—In a dramatic manner the murder trial of William Crockett, a white man charged with the murder of Lum Henderson, a negro, came to an end when Judge Henry Pearce dismissed the jury with a stinging rebuke, declaring that the jury had acquitted Crockett because he was a white man and had killed a negro.

In concluding, Judge Pearce said: "If the dead man had been a white citizen it would not have taken you two hours to have returned a verdict of guilty, and I don't see how any member of the jury can go from this courthouse and face his fellow citizens in the street."

Havana, Nov. 10.—A determined effort to induce Governor Magoon to begin a general distribution of offices among the members of the Liberal party was made yesterday afternoon when a sub-committee appointed by the Liberal meeting Thursday night, held a two-hours' conference with the governor. The result of the conference is not known. On leaving the palace, however, General Velez said the interview was highly satisfactory and that Governor Magoon assured the committee that he would continue the reforms in the municipal government and that an election would be held in June.

SIR HENRY MORTIMER DURAND
Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, the British ambassador to the United States, will resign his post and retire from public life at the end of the year.

CARRIED TO DEATH

Workmen Buried in Ruins of Hotel That Collapsed.

Long Beach, Cal., Nov. 10.—With no warning save the cries of the workmen who first felt the floors sag beneath their feet, five stories of the central wing of the new $750,000 Bixby hotel collapsed, carrying nine men to death in the tons of tangled wreckage. About 150 workmen were scattered through the structure when it fell, and of these nearly 100 were carried down in the debris.

Five bodies have been taken from the debris and one of the injured died at the Long Beach hospital. Three other bodies have been located and taken from the ruins, making nine dead. Thirteen men are unaccounted for and nine injured are being cared for at the hospitals. None of the injured will die.

Made a Flying Trip.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 10.—Franklin Stone, formerly of Philadelphia and now giving Paris as his home, who is wanted by the government on an indictment charging misuse of the mails in the Storey cotton transactions involving the loss of several millions of dollars, was in Cincinnati yesterday, but disappeared before the officials could apprehend him.

Will Wait for the Money.

Tangier, Nov. 10.—Mr. Gummere, the American minister to Morocco, is still at Fez, awaiting the payment of the claims for indemnity made upon the Moroccan government by American citizens for alleged outrages. He will not leave the capital until these demands are satisfied.

President's Safe Progress.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 10.—The warship squadron bearing President Roosevelt to Panama passed safely around Cape Hatteras on the North Carolina coast and this morning was well off the South Carolina coast. They are running at the rate of sixteen miles an hour.

A Woman Collector

(Original.)
"The firm name was Shiris & Shinn," said the retired hardware dealer, "and we didn't get on from the start. I had a good trade and was obliged to be on the road most of the time. This left the buying to my partner. The trouble was that he wasn't any kind of a buyer. If a salesman came along with a cock and bull story about a sick wife and a dozen or so starving children Shinn would buy a bill of goods of him whether we wanted them or not. The consequence was that every time I came in I found the stock growing in spite of my efforts to reduce it.

"Well, the result of it all was that weeping drummers finally succeeded in turning the store into a junk shop, and we had to quit. Shinn, as he should have done, offered to stand the loss, giving up all the capital he'd put in, acknowledging that the outcome had been entirely his fault. If I could have closed up at once his money would have been just enough to square us, with no loss to me, but the very day we closed along comes a one-legged commercial traveler he called himself—consumptive, wheezing through one lung, and Shinn had to order a $500 bill of him. We closed the order out at about 60 cents on the dollar, making a deficiency of $187.42. This Shinn agreed to pay as soon he was able.

"Shinn was a bachelor and removed from his rooms in an apartment house to a little shanty. I sent a man around to collect his indebtedness, but he came back empty handed, but he came back with orders to be more persistent, and he came back, reporting that the door had been slammed in his face. I used to see Shinn occasionally on the street. He looked morose and shabby. One day I saw him give a quarter to a beggar. That made me mad. If he had money to give such nuisances he had it to pay his honest debts. I hired a regular fighting collector and sent him round to Shinn's shanty. He came back with his head bandaged up, a black eye and a swelled lip, to say nothing of the loss of a suit of clothes.

"I hired several men in succession to go and get into the house and stay there till Shinn came down with the funds. The first one that came back reported he'd been thrown out, the second shared the same fate and the third and the fourth and so on likewise.

"Then it occurred to me that I'd send a woman. You see, a man can't fight a woman, and there never was a woman yet that couldn't get the better of a man if she wanted to. There was no woman's collecting agency in the town, so I told several friends of mine that I'd give half the debt to any woman who'd collect it.

"About a month after making the announcement a young, good looking woman came to see me and said she'd heard I wanted a debt collected of Percy Shinn. She didn't look like a business woman at all, but I concluded to try her. So I gave her an order for the money and started her out.

"It was 3 o'clock when she left me, and I waited with a good deal of anxiety to learn how Shinn would meet this new enemy. I expected her back in about an hour. Four o'clock came, but no collector—5, 6, 7, and she didn't show up. In fact, she didn't show up that night nor the next day nor the next for the next. A week passed, and I began to think Shinn had murdered her. Funny, wasn't it? Every man I'd sent had come back after having been thrown out; the only woman I'd sent didn't come back at all.

"Then I fancied maybe the woman had collected the money or a part of it and gone off with it. At the same time it occurred to me that I had stupidly omitted to take her address. I concluded to notify the police and started out to do so, but thought I'd take a look on the way at Shinn's house. So I went a roundabout way and brought up opposite the shanty. Somehow it didn't look so tumble-down as before. There were white holland shades in the windows and a few flowers in the yard in front.

"A woman came out of a house near where I was standing, and I asked her who lived in the house opposite. She said, 'Mr. Shinn.' 'Any one with him?' 'His wife.' 'I didn't know he was married.' 'He wasn't a short time ago. There's a story connected with it. Mr. Shinn owed some old emerald-green some money and sent a young woman to collect it. She was real smart. She told him she was to get half the amount collected; that she was the only support of a widowed mother and seven brothers and sisters. She gave such a pitiful picture that Shinn, who had been a long while starving himself to pay the debt and had just saved the last penny, went and got it and gave it to her. You see somebody had told her what kind of a man Shinn was. She was so cut up by his lovable manner that she told him to keep the money for all her, and he said he would keep it till his creditor came for it himself. It was one of the quickest matches I ever heard of. They only knew each other a week before they were married.'

"This was the story given out. Years after I heard the true one. The woman was an old sweetheart of Shinn's who had refused him. On hearing of his condition she had gone, disguised, ostensibly to collect the money. Knowing his soft spot, she had made up the yarn. Then she threw off her disguise, and there was a circus.

"Yes, I got the money—every cent due. I went for it myself."

The Young Man's Store

We don't believe that another store in town caters to the clothes-wants of young men in just the same way, or nearly so well as we do.

The demand of the young man for clothes original in design, appreciably more radical in cut and livelier in pattern than the clothes made for older men, is met in this store in a way that no other clothier in town attempts.

Garson-Meyer Clothes for young men are distinctly young men's clothes. They are just the sort of clothes that spirited young fellows demand—smarter, more dashing in cut, and better made than any other ready-for-service clothes produced for the same sort of wearers.

RUSH COUNTY WITH THE HORSES

Brief Points of the Situation in the Horse Business in this County

Pointed paragraphs from the Western Horseman point out the following interesting "points":

Indianapolis sale next week. Everett Piper, Rushville, Ind., keeps good in The Western Horseman Stake No. 1, a bright prospect in May Patchen, by The Patchen Boy (3), 2:10 1/4; dam Secret by Gambetta Wilkes.

Ruby Lacy, 2:10 1/4, which has been quite generally credited to Gambryon, is by Gambrel, 2:10 1/4. Ruby Lacy was "made" by Harrie Jones, the Rushville trainer, and was sold to Mr. Talmage. Her dam was Blue Vein. Alf Patchen, 2:10 1/4, a black stallion by the "iron horse," Joe Patchen, 2:01 1/4, has a great burst of speed, and paced around 2:08 over the half-mile tracks this year. He is of Grand Circuit caliber and capable of 2:04.

Joseph B. Furst, Lock Haven, Pa., last week, purchased of Dick Wilson, Rushville, Ind., two very promising yearling fillies by The Patchen Boy, 2:10 1/4. One of them is out of a mare by Arrowood, second dam the dam of Baron B., 2:08 1/4, by Beaumont, third dam by Ajax 40, fourth dam by Hambletonian Downy; the other is out of the dam of Baron B. They are great race prospects, and were bought for racing purposes.

Harrie Jones, of Rushville, Ind., has just received from Senator Bailey and Gen. C. C. Watts the brown trotting stallion, Silk Weaver, 2:19 1/4. He was sired by Prodigal, 2:16, a great stake-winning sire. His dam is Brown Silk, 2:19 1/4 (the dam of seven with records of 2:10 1/4 to 2:30), by Baron Wilkes; second dam Nannie Eticoat (the dam of six with records of 2:08 1/4 to 2:30), by Belwood; third dam Soprano (dam of ten with records of 2:16 1/4 to 2:30), by Strathmore; fourth dam Abess (dam of Steinway.)

STANDARD OIL RAISES WAGES AFTER ELECTION

A news dispatch says: "The Standard Oil Company announces a voluntary increase in wages of employees in the Galena Signal Oil and Refining Company located in Franklin, Pa. The percentage of increase was not stated. About eight hundred men will be benefited."

Gen. Charles Miller, who made the announcement on behalf of the Galena Signal Oil Company, said that the election of the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania had inspired the management with the belief that still greater prosperity is coming, and they desired their employees to share in it.

Election Board Arrested.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 10.—During the official election count testimony was given showing that more than 2,000 fraudulent votes were returned in seven districts in Foster and Hazel townships. As a result, some of the candidates who on the face of the returns seemed practically sure of election, find themselves in a doubtful position. The election board of the Ninth district of Hazel township were ordered arrested, charged with fraud, forgery and misdemeanor as election officers.

Aged Woman Slain for Money.

Stafford Springs, Conn., Nov. 10.—Charles Bishop, eighteen years old, employed on the farm of Henry Williams, has confessed the murder of Mrs. Williams, the farmer's aged wife, whose body was found in a pool of blood late Thursday in her house, according to a statement made by Coroner Fisk. Bishop, it is understood, has also confessed to taking money from a trunk in an upper room.

To Await Execution.

Scottsburg, Ind., Nov. 10.—William A. Spores, convicted of the murder of Douglas Fawcush after trial in the Scott circuit court, has been removed to prison at Michigan City, there to await the death penalty, February 25. Spores went away in a cheerful mood, seemingly not much impressed with the fate hanging over him.

Game Commissioner's Report.

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—The report of the commissioner of fisheries and game for 1905-1906 has been handed to the governor. It will comprise an elaborate volume containing three departments, devoted to fisheries, game and birds. The book will make a handsome volume of 800 or 900 pages, containing 200 or 300 illustrations, some of which are very finely executed in colors. Persons desiring free copies of this report should make their applications as soon as possible to their representative in the legislature or state senate, as there will not be nearly enough books to supply the demand made for this report.

Charged With Wife Murder.

Goshen, Ind., Nov. 10.—An indictment for murder has been returned by the grand jury against Lewis Fuller for killing his wife. The woman was found dead in bed with a bullet in her brain, and Fuller contends that she was shot by a burglar who had robbed him of $331. The killing came on the night of Oct. 25, and it was followed a few hours later by the arrest of Fuller and his commitment to jail.

A Fool and a Gun.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 10.—Miss Florence Taylor was shot and seriously wounded by Nicholas Snyder. She was at the Snyder home, and the girl and young man were fooling with a revolver, which was not thought to be loaded. Snyder pointed the weapon at Miss Taylor and pulled the trigger, and she fell to the floor seriously injured. Snyder has fled, believing that he killed the girl.

The Deadly Gasoline.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 10.—Mrs. John Sinclair, forty-five years old, wife of a well-known farmer five miles south of this city, overturned a can filled with gasoline on a stove while getting supper, and in the fire which followed she was burned to death.

Winamac, Ind., Nov. 10.—While shredding corn in this city the right arm of A. Lizenby was crushed so badly that it was amputated at the shoulder.

New Traction Road Proposed.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 10.—The secretary of state has issued a license to incorporate to the Evansville, Mount Carmel & Northern railway, with principal office in Chicago, and with nominal capital stock of $10,000. The company proposes to construct a road from a point on the Cairo, Vincennes & Chicago railroad near Mount Carmel, Ill., to a point on the Wabash river between Illinois and Indiana.

He Is Left Alone.

Jackson, La., Nov. 10.—Every member of the faculty of Centenary college here, except Prof. Moncreiff, has resigned as a consequence of the recent stabbing of Rev. Dr. Miller by Moncreiff. Two days ago the entire student body left the college for their homes on account of the retention of Prof. Moncreiff.

HARRIMAN'S LINES

Will Be Run Through the Inter-State Commerce Commission's Mill.

INQUIRY IS DEMANDED

It Is Said That the Harriman System Is Not Unlike the Northern Securities Company, Dissolved.

General Powers of the Commission Will Be Exerted In Promised Inquiry.

Washington, Nov. 10.—A general investigation of what is known as the Harriman system of railroads under the authority conferred by law, is one of the subjects that has been discussed by the interstate commerce commission. Because of the pressure of work before the committee and the great amount of labor and time involved in such an undertaking, the matter has thus far been considered only in an informal and tentative way and no final decision has been reached as to when the proposed inquiry shall begin or the methods to be followed in securing the information desired. The propriety of an investigation of the system has been talked of by members of the commission for some time, and that body, it is said, really stands committed to an inquiry.

"We have been informed," a member of the commission said last night, "that this system in some of its features is not unlike the Northern Securities company, which was dissolved through the interposition of the attorney general of the United States." Any steps that may be taken by the commission along the lines referred to will be, it is said, in accordance with the general powers of the commission conferred by law, and not because of any immediate specific complaint of a violation of the statutes.

ELECTION AND TRADE

Evidences of Confidence Revealed in Bounding Business.

New York, Nov. 10.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: Greater confidence, resulting from the election, marked advances in wages of railway employees, greatly improved collections, large filling in orders, indicating heavy consumption, good business on spring account, a continued scarcity of labor and record-breaking outputs of iron and steel, are prominent features of the week. Business has been active, but complaints of slow deliveries on orders are almost universal, cotton, drygoods, lumber, coal and iron and steel dealers all complaining. Car congestion explains some of this, and with present prices of grain, accounts for slow movement from the farms, but scarcity of labor is reported largely responsible for the backward deliveries of drygoods.

Industry presents as active an appearance as ever, and labor is getting high returns, an example of this being afforded by an advance of 10 per cent in wages by a number of leading railways. All in all, the situation is one of immense activity and of eagerness.

New Homes for Filipinos.

Mexico City, Nov. 10.—Paul Wentworth Limberger, district judge of the Philippine islands, has arrived here from Manila to determine as to the feasibility of establishing colonies of Filipinos along the coast of Mexico. Judge Limberger states that should the situation warrant he will bring over artisans as well as laborers. He says the Filipinos will flourish in the coast towns, which are of a hot climate. Judge Limberger has tendered his resignation as judge in the Philippine islands and is en route to Washington. He is originally from Chicago.

Tom Bigfoot Missing.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 10.—Tom Bigfoot, an Indian runner to whom the election ballots and returns of the Wonder mining district were given Wednesday, has disappeared and deputy sheriffs are searching for him. On the return rests the fate of the candidates for judge in the Second district and the fate of several Churchill county candidates. It is believed the Indian was intercepted and robbed of the returns and that he fled to the hills for fear of prosecution.

AFTER MCCARREN'S SCALP

Kings County Democratic Organization Accused of Treachery.

New York, Nov. 10.—The Democratic state committee met here and by a vote of 30 to 13 adopted a resolution providing for an investigation of the conduct of the Kings county Democratic organization headed by State Senator Patrick H. McCarren, during the campaign just closed. A delegation of Brooklyn Democrats headed by Patrick Hayes, warden of the Kings county penitentiary and a former leader of one of the assembly districts included in Senator McCarren's senatorial district, preferred charges against the senator and the Kings county committee. It was alleged that McCarren had "knifed" the head of the ticket and urged his followers to do the same.

The state committee also took steps to defend any action that may be taken by the Republicans to overthrow the pluralities which seem to exist in favor of the Democratic candidates on the state ticket from lieutenant governor down.

Warden Hayes and his associates remained with the committee for forty minutes, and during that time there were frequent outbursts of applause. The delegation asked that Senator McCarren be relieved from further service on the committee. It was declared by the spokesman that "McCarren's place is with the Republicans."

It was asserted that the action of Senator McCarren and the Kings county committee "destroyed the Democratic organization of the county and made that organization simply an annex or ally of the Republican organization."

Senator McCarren declared in reply that at a meeting of the Kings county committee he had said some things about Mr. Hearst. "And if the opportunity presents," he declared, "I shall repeat them. When a fellow hits you on the jaw I do not believe in turning the other cheek. I believe in striking back straight from the shoulder. If on another occasion I could make my statements regarding Mr. Hearst any more emphatic, I should certainly do so. Mr. Hayes, who is here opposing me, never voted a Democratic ticket in his life. I have never voted a Republican ticket. I deny that I knifed the ticket at the Buffalo convention. As to Mr. Hearst, I regard him as the bolter, not myself. And the Kings county organization regarded him as a bolter."

Mr. McCarren concluded by offering a resolution providing that the investigation be extended to all the counties of the state where Mr. Hearst ran behind his ticket. The amendment was lost, and then the motion to investigate the Kings county organization was carried. The investigating committee will be named later.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Showers tonight and possibly Sunday. Warmer tonight. Cooler Sunday.

Miss Anna Mahern is ill at her home on West Fifth street.

Prof. David Graham is able to be out after an illness of several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Green have moved from West Fifth street to Indianapolis.

A nine pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gilson in Walker township, this week.

The Eighth street improvements have been completed. It is one of the best streets in this city.

Several couples from Connersville attended the dance in the Modern Woodmen hall last night.

The Elks of Greensburg gave their dance of the season last night. Several local Elks attended the dance.

James Carter, who is seriously ill in Riverside, Cal., with typhoid fever, is again in a critical condition.

George A. Shaw & Co. have filed suit against Marion Griffin in the circuit court. Demand on account, $85.

New Castle Courier: That now's a good time for Congressman Watson to push a federal building for New Castle.

Connersville News: William Middleton and Leo Kahn spent yesterday evening at Rushville, the guest of lady friends.

Michael Brown has qualified as administrator of the estate of John Humphreys of Falmouth. The estate is valued at $5000.

Dick Elliott, of Connersville, joint representative from Wayne and Fayette counties, is being spoken of as a speaker of the next legislature.

Charles B. Burch, of Cripple Creek, Col., is in this city. He has glowing reports from the gold mines in that district. Many local people have capital invested there.

The returns from New York show that every Democrat, save Hearst, was elected. Truly an indication that the people are afraid of Hearst, and do not want any of him.

Will H. Cherry attended the Indiana Farmers Institute Workers in session at Lafayette this week. Mr. Cherry spoke on "How to Make the Institute Successful," Thursday.

The two young men who made a spectacular escape from Officer Pea, a few days ago, and who were afterwards captured and sent to jail for fifteen days, were given their liberty today.

Connersville Examiner: Richard Shaw, of Maplewood, was accompanied to Rushville today by Dr. W. J. Porter. Mr. Shaw will be a patient at the Sexton hospital, where he will undergo an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott, who were married in this city Thursday evening, left on a honeymoon through the northwest. On their return they will be at home to their many friends in Connersville.

"When the corn is in the crib, and the farmers in the town"—is the strains of a bucolic limerick that is appropriate at this time. Nearly all of the farmers of Rush county have put away their iron gloves.

Connersville Examiner: J. C. Mount was host at high noon dinner today to Misses Kate Mount, Sophia Pepper and Q. A. Mount, of this city, Mrs. Fanny Wolfe Maupin, of Rushville, and Charles Wolfe, of Washington, D. C.

Shelbyville Republican: Mrs. T. G. Green received this morning two barrels of beautiful red apples from her father, the Rev. T. B. Gary, of Rush county. The apples were raised in Rush county and are fine specimens. Mrs. Green favored the Republican office with a basket of them this morning.

Andy Peare, the plumber who formerly lived here, and is now in the land of milk and honey and a "plenty," writes from Berkeley, Cal., that he often thinks of old Rushville. He favored this office with a San Francisco Examiner, which is most unusual in quantity, but with the usual standard of "Hearst" in quality.

The Connersville limited car on the I. & C. will make the run in two hours and twenty minutes.

Quite a number from this city attended the Notre Dame-Indiana football game in Indianapolis today.

Over at Shelbyville the authorities are preparing a list of all the habitual drunkards in the town and will serve notice upon the saloon keepers not to sell intoxicating liquors to them under penalty of the law.

George Hoard, an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad had a foot mashed Thursday, near Ball & Ball's elevator, while unloading stone. He was taken to the home of his son-in-law, John A. Osborn, in Brookside.

The name of Edward Worsham, who committed suicide, at his home east of Glenwood last week, was on the Democratic ticket for the office of surveyor and received about the average vote. In the 10th precinct 56 votes were given Worsham, while Cox, the head of the Democratic State ticket, got 55, or one less.

Corn accident No. 3.—E. A. Matney, living near New Salem, stumbled over a corn stalk and sprained his knee this week. This is the third accident resulting from the enormous large corn this week—two others were reported with sprained wrists from shucking large ears. This unusually large crop of corn would make a good issue for the Democratic party next fall. Somebody ought to put a stop to it.

Mrs. Robert Whitton Sr. of Farmers Station, was thrown from a buggy in a runaway yesterday, east of here, and was badly scratched by being thrown into a barb wire fence. It was not the auto this time, but a black hog that John Newsum, was driving, which the old family mare mistook evidently for a black bear coming at her.

Several candidates will be initiated into the Daughters of Rebecca at Glenwood, Tuesday night. Parties will be made up in this city, Falmouth and Arlington to attend the meeting and the lodge from the latter town will confer the degree work.

Little Esther Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orion Holmes, of West Fifth street, is threatened with pneumonia.

Robert J. Criner has filed suit against John E. Spradling, demand on note, $175.

Frank E. Haworth and Elizabeth E. Rogers have been licensed to wed.

Congressman Watson and family will spend Sunday with his parents, Hon. and Mrs. E. L. Watson in Winchester.

The city council met last night and disposed of unfinished business of little import.

Kennedy & Hunt had two stoves loaded and fired with coal on the sidewalk in front of their store today. A great many people gathered about them as they do in the stores, and thought they had been provided on account of the cold weather, and did not realize they were being exhibited for advertising purposes.

SMOKING A CIGAR

Curious Bet That Shows an Impossible Way of Smoking

"I have a customer who thinks he smokes twenty Wadsworth Bros' Chicos a day," said Thos. W. Lytle. "As a matter of fact, he gives away a good many, but is firm in his belief that he smokes more cigars than any other man in Rushville. He says he is willing to bet that no man can smoke even one cigar continuously until it is consumed without taking it from his lips, and he has won a good many boxes of Chicos on this simple bet.

"Of course, this man's trade keeps me buying Chicos right along, but aside from what I sell him, Chicos have the largest sale of any cigar in my case.

"I warrant it clear Havana filler, and although it sells for five cents it is equal to any ten cent goods. I cannot recommend it too highly."

CHURCH NEWS

Misses Ruby Norris and Georgia Wyatt will sing a duet at the Christian church Sunday morning.

Christian Scientists have services in the court house assembly room every Sunday morning at 10:45. Everyone is welcome.

Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the Christian church at Lebanon, will fill the pulpit at the Main Street Christian church Sunday. His themes will be "The Light of the World," and "The Inspiration of the Invisible." Rev. Brown is one of the finest pulpit orators in the State.

Dr. Tevis will have for his themes tomorrow at St. Paul's M. E. church, morning, "Freedom Through the Truth;" evening, "Two Effects of Genuine Piety." Special music by the choir. Sunday school at 2:15 p. m.; Epworth League at 6:15 p. m. A cordial invitation to all.

At "The Stone Church" tomorrow, the pastor, W. P. McGarey, will have for his morning text, "What Mean ye by These Stones?" In the evening his subject will be "Christ's Present Interest in the Church." Special music at both services. Public cordially invited.

The regular services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. P. McGarey, Sunday, at the United Presbyterian church, with special programs of music. Rev. McGarey's morning text will be "What Mean ye by These Stones," and in the evening he will preach on the subject "The Church: Her Inspiration and Her Work." Everyone invited to attend these services.

Speaking of the revival meetings now in progress at Indianapolis, the Indianapolis Independent says: "Fourteen evangelists of the Christian denomination attacked Satan's bulwarks simultaneously in as many different churches in this city last Sunday. They poured hot shot into his majesty's right and left and then charged his center, capturing fifty-two of his followers and enlisting them under their own banner. It is not likely the other denominations will let the Christian church wage the fight alone, so that old Satan must fight like a Turk to hold his own in Indianapolis this winter."
